

Dear Friends,

Join us in letting our special needs community know that they are not alone. We are Standing By Them. Your unconditional love and support will EMPOWER us to Relay For Our Dream all the way to the finish line.

If you have not had a chance to donate, it's not too late to support us now. Complimentary virtual Gala tickets will be emailed to donors of $20 or more. Let's all unite together at the Gala on Saturday 11/7, 4-5:30pm.

Sincerely,
Anna Wang
FCSN Co-Founder

Our Honoree: Nancy Bargmann

NANCY BARGMANN was appointed Director of the California Department of Developmental Services (DDS) in 2016, by Governor Edmund G. Brown Jr. The Department, in conjunction with the 21 private nonprofit regional centers located throughout the State, provides services and supports to over 300,000 Californians with developmental disabilities. Director Bargmann has extensive experience in the developmental services field, both in the private, non-profit and corporate sectors, and the State. During the pandemic, Director Bargmann has tirelessly developed directives with the Developmental Services Task Force composed of individuals, families, advocates, community-based organization and regional center leaders to ensure the safety, well-being and survival of the special needs community and the service providers.

Our Emcee: Matt Keller

Matt Keller is a familiar face for FCSN. He has been the emcee of our annual gala since 2017. His wonderful sense of humor and personality won the audience over and kept them thoroughly entertained. Matt is currently the Media and Public Relations Supervisor at Valley Water. Before that, he was an anchor and reporter for more than 20 years. Matt won two Emmy awards and Edward R. Murrow award. He was most recently a reporter and fill-in anchor for ABC7 New here in the Bay Area. During his time off, Matt enjoys running, spending time with his family and supporting his friends at FCSN.
